.Concord, (N.H.). "... the New England Anti-Slavery Convention approaches ... I do think the spirit of primitive Christianity is reviving in this our day ... Happy is it now for those who are sharing in the great work of moral and Christian reform ... The Anti-Slavery cause prospers with us in New Hampshire ... Do you see our little 'Herald of Freedom,' published in Concord? Its editor is just the man you would like ..." Has heard something about a love affair of Eliza Frances Jackson.

To S. Martineau

[47 Charlotte Road] The addressee's visit to Norwich has led the writer to think of the changes in Norwich since the time when her relations lived there. Has read the three volumes [of Harriet Martineau's Autobiography] and has thus had "to do with Norwich by means of your aunt's graphic and deeply interesting story." Hopes the book will help its readers to understand the dispositions of young people. The writer can read what is said about Unitarians without being hurt, as he seems to know the circumstances that vexed her [Harriet Martineau], and he is not concerned with defending "the stiff and dull Unitarians to whom mainl[illegible]er remarks apply."

Has the pleasure to inform him that through his brother Waldo's efforts (brother of his first wife, Lucy Waldo?) he has been granted one hundred pounds, which signifies that he is considered one of the Council. Is indebted to Waldo, as General G. took no notice of the application. Has heard that the Lees are to be in Boston and the Startins also. Expects soon to hear news from New York and expresses fears for what may have happened there. A.L.S. 3p. 9 x 7 1/2 in.

To Isaac Winslow, his brother-in-law, at Halifax.

[London.] Repeats the news of the amount granted to him by the government. Has heard no word of them for some time or from New York but that Lord Howe and General Clinton with the Hessian troops had joined General Howe. Fears for what may have occurred. Mr. Joshua Loring writes to Colonel Hatch from Staten Island that Mr. S (?) Prince had made his escape from Long Island. Does not mention Mr. G:B---ne, and so believes he is still at Long Island. Relates how Thomas Bromfield left the country secretly and went to Paris. Royal is very ill; other friends well; the Copleys send greetings. A.L.S. 3p. 9 x 7 1/2 in.

[Leicester Fields.] Regrets that he could not sail at the time he had planned. Has been writing regularly to him but supposes that the letters have gone astray. Has written also to Mrs. Bromfield and has given the letter to David Green to deliver. Hopes that he can send more news now that he is at New York. Of news in England, he writes that opposition in Parliament seems to be dead and that the Declaration of Independence "has convinced many and silenced others." The gentlemen of the M: Council have renewed their applications and will do what he can for Winslow's interests. Word came that Fort Washington was taken. Hopes that communication can be opened between that place and Canada. Asks him [illegible]rward his letters to his sons. Mentions General Robinson. [illegible]. 2p. 9 x 7 1/2 in.

Pickett, Albert James, 1810-1858; author.

To Clinton C. Clay, governor of Alabama.

[Montgomery, Ala.] Will attend to his request respecting the army claims. Wishes that Clay might have attended the meeting at Mobile, for it would nave strengthened his chances. Believes that he will be opposed by Colonel Owen, or by Lyon. Believes Sandford's choice for Congress is A. P. Bagby. Some think that Calhoun will oppose Lyon. The Alabama Journal has published articles derogatory to Clay. When at the Custom House met again with Captain Stringer. Comments on his personality. A.L.S. 4p. 9 1/2 x 7 3/4 in.
